The Commissioner having reviewed the results of the investigation and made the following FINDINGS OF FACT and CONCLUSION OF LAW:

Findings of Fact

1. NRS 645B.900 prohibits any person from offering or providing any services of a mortgage broker or mortgage agent or otherwise engaging in, carrying on or holding himself or herself out as engaging in or carrying on the business of a mortgage broker or mortgage agent without first obtaining the applicable license issued pursuant to this chapter, unless the person is properly exempt from licensure.

> 1. "Mortgage agent" means:
> (a) A natural person who:
> (1) Is an employee of a mortgage broker or mortgage banker who is required to be licensed pursuant to this chapter or chapter 645E of NRS; and
> (2) Is authorized by the mortgage broker or mortgage banker to engage in, on behalf of the mortgage broker or mortgage banker, any activity that would require the person, if the person were not an employee of the mortgage broker or mortgage banker, to be licensed as a mortgage broker or mortgage banker pursuant to this chapter or chapter 645E of NRS;
> (b) A mortgage broker, qualified employee or mortgage banker who is required by NRS 645B.405 or 645E.290 to be licensed as a mortgage agent; or

(c) A loan processor who is an independent contractor and who is associated with a mortgage broker, mortgage banker or person who holds a certificate of exemption pursuant to NRS 645B.016.

2. The term includes, but is not limited to, a residential mortgage loan originator.

3. NRS 645B.01325 defines a "residential mortgage loan originator" as a natural person who takes a residential mortgage loan application or offers or negotiates terms of a residential mortgage loan for compensation or other pecuniary gain. The term does not include:

1. A loan processor, underwriter or other natural person who performs clerical or ministerial tasks as an employee at the direction of and subject to the supervision and instruction of a person licensed or exempt from licensing under this chapter, unless the person who performs such clerical or ministerial tasks is an independent contractor[.]

4. NRS 645B.0124(1) defines a "loan processor" as a natural person who:

(a) Receives, collects, distributes or analyzes information that is commonly used for the processing of a residential mortgage loan; and

(b) Communicates with a consumer to obtain the information necessary for the activities described in paragraph (a).

2. The communication described in paragraph (b) of subsection 1 does not include communication offering or negotiating loan rates or terms of counseling consumers about residential mortgage loan rates or terms.

5. NRS 645B.01125 defines "Employee" as a natural person:

1. Whose manner and means of performance of work are subject to the right of control of, or are controlled by, another person; and

(b) An employee of or associated with a person who holds a certificate of exemption pursuant to NRS 645B.016.

3. If the person is required to register with the Registry:

(a) Is an employee of and whose sponsorship has been entered with the Registry by a mortgage broker, mortgage banker or person who holds a certificate of exemption pursuant to NRS 645B.016 as required by subsection 2 of NRS 645B.450; and

(b) Is registered with and provides any identifying number issued by the Registry.

7. NAC 645B.410 provides as follows:

Unless otherwise specifically prohibited by federal law and pursuant to section 1504(b)(2) of the S.A.F.E. Mortgage Licensing Act, an independent contractor may not engage in the activities of a residential mortgage loan originator as a loan processor or underwriter unless such independent contractor is licensed as a mortgage agent.

8. NRS 645B.670(1)(c)(12) provides as follows:

(c) For each violation committed by a mortgage agent, the Commissioner may impose upon the mortgage agent an administrative fine of not more than $25,000, may suspend, revoke or place conditions upon the mortgage agent's license, or may do both, if the mortgage agent, whether or not acting as such:

* * *

(12) Has violated any provision of this chapter, a regulation adopted pursuant to this chapter or an order of the Commissioner or has assisted or offered to assist another person to commit such a violation.

[Emphasis added.]

9. RESPONDENT previously held a mortgage agent license (MLD License No. 10862) issued by the Commissioner on April 30, 2003. RESPONDENT did not renew this license and it was terminated on January 7, 2009 by operation of law.

10. RESPONDENT is subject to a prior final disciplinary order of the Commissioner (Order No. 2012-08, In the Matter of: Mortgage Capital USA, Inc. and Gustave Anaya), issued and entered on June 18, 2012 against RESPONDENT and his business entity, Mortgage Capital USA, Inc., resulting from violations of NRS 645F and NAC 645F and imposing upon RESPONDENT an administrative fine in the amount of $25,000.00 and other penalties related to RESPONDENT'S misconduct. RESPONDENT has failed to comply with the terms and requirements of Order No. 2012-08.

11. On or about June 17, 2013, the Division received a complaint which caused the Division to commence an investigation into the activities and business practices of RAR Limited ("RAR").

12. During the course of the investigation of RAR, Staff determined the following:

a. RAR was a loan processing company that processed loans for Pinnacle Lending Group, Inc. RAR did not hold a license or certificate of exemption issued by the Commissioner.

b. RAR employed several individuals as independent contractors to act as "loan assistants" to process loan applications. RAR described the activities performed by these 'loan assistants" to include "reviewing credit reports of borrowers along with verifying credit history in terms of debts and payments; checking appraisal and property issues requiring further justifications; helping with loan documentation; inputting information into the system for processing; meeting with clients to answer simple questions and discuss the loan process; generally assisting with files from pre-approval to closing." The aforementioned activities all fall within the definition of "loan processor" set forth in NRS 645B.0124.

c. In 2013, RESPONDENT was employed by RAR as an independent contractor loan processor.

d. RESPONDENT received compensation from RAR, in 2013, in the amount of $59,028.82. RESPONDENT'S 2013 compensation was reported on an IRS Form 1099-MISC.

e. RESPONDENT received at least eleven checks from RAR during 2013. Each check stated in the memo line of the check that the payment was for "[h]elp on files," "[w]ork on files," or "[h]elp on [borrower name]."

f. RESPONDENT was engaged in activity and conduct which required licensure as a mortgage agent.

13. NAC 645B.515 vests in the Commissioner the authority to order a person engaging in activity in violation of the Statute or Regulation to immediately cease and desist from engaging in the activity.

14. NRS 645B.690 requires the Commissioner to impose an administrative penalty of not more than $50,000 on a person that offers or provides any of the services of a mortgage broker or mortgage agent or otherwise engages in, carries on or holds himself or herself out as engaging in or carrying on the business of a mortgage broker or mortgage agent and, at the time the person was required to have a license pursuant this chapter and the person did not have such a license.

15. NRS 645B.670(1)(c)(12) authorizes the Commissioner to impose an administrative fine of not more than $25,000 upon a mortgage agent (a person who offers or provides any of the services of a mortgage agent, or otherwise engages in, carries on, or holds himself or herself out as engaging in or carrying on the business of a mortgage agent), who has violated an order of the Commissioner.

16. Any finding of fact that may be deemed a conclusion of law shall be so construed.

Conclusions of Law

17. It is a violation of NRS 645B.900 for a person to offer or provide any of the services of a mortgage agent or otherwise to engage in, carry on or hold himself out as engaging in or carrying on the

19. It is a violation of NRS 645B.400 for a loan processor who is an independent contractor to act or provide any of the services of a mortgage agent or otherwise engage in, carry on or hold himself out as engaging in or carrying on the activities of a mortgage agent unless he has first been licensed as a mortgage agent by the Commissioner.

In particular, by receiving compensation or remuneration as an independent contractor engaging in the activities of a residential mortgage loan originator as a loan processor, or for otherwise offering or providing the services of a mortgage agent within the meaning of NRS 645B.0125, or carrying on, or holding himself out as engaging in or carrying on the business of a mortgage agent within the meaning of NRS 645B.0125, without first having obtained a mortgage license as required by NRS 645B or NAC 645B, RESPONDENT is in violation of the Statute and Regulation.

22. RESPONDENT is further in violation of NRS 645B.670(1)(c)(12) by violating an order of the Commissioner, specifically, the Final Order issued and entered on June 18, 2012, due to his failure to remit payment of the $25,000 fine as mandated.

23. The Commissioner is authorized pursuant to NRS 645B.515 to order a person to cease and desist from engaging in any activity that violates any provision of the Statute.

24. The Commissioner is required pursuant to NRS 645B.690 to impose an administrative fine of not more than $50,000 on a person who offers or provides any of the services of a mortgage broker or mortgage agent or otherwise engages in, carries on or holds himself or herself out as engaging in or carrying on the business of a mortgage broker or mortgage agent and, at the time the person was required to have a license pursuant to the Statute and the person did not have such a license.

25. The Commissioner is authorized pursuant to NRS 645B.670(1)(c)(12) to impose an administrative fine of not more than $25,000 upon a mortgage agent (a person who offers or provides any of the services of a mortgage agent, or otherwise engages in, carries on, or holds himself or herself out as engaging in or carrying on the business of a mortgage agent), who has violated an order of the Commissioner.

26. Any conclusion of law that may be deemed a finding of fact shall be so construed.
